EXHIBITIONS

EMMA – Espoo Museum of Modern Art

www.emmamuseum.fi #emmamuseum
EMMA is a museum for impressive art and new experiences.

5 June 2019–1 March 2020
INTERWOVEN

Take a look into the bold, ever-developing world of materials. The exhibition interweaves fibres, techniques, textures and diverse materials into a tapestry, fusing the legacy of contemporary art, ancient handicrafts, new technology and futuristic visions.

21 August 2019–26 January 2020
MICHAEL JACKSON: ON THE WALL

The main exhibition of the year brings together contemporary artists' interpretations of the phenomenon called Michael Jackson. The show features more than 40 international artists from Andy Warhol to Grayson Perry and Isa Genzken who have used their art to examine Jackson's impact on culture and our way of thinking.

21 August 2019–26 January 2020
ADEL ABIDIN: MICHAEL

Michael is a video installation, a sarcastic study of our times, our worship of money and celebrity. A pop star can be compared to a prophet who is blindly followed. Iraqi-Finnish Adel Abidin uses his art to explore cultural clashes and power relationships.

PERMANENT EXHIBITION
TOUCH

A permanent exhibition displaying selected works from the Saastamoinen Foundation Art Collection. With the overarching theme of humanity at its core, the exhibition presents an extensive selection of contemporary works from Finland and abroad. Several works in the exhibition will be exchanged during the autumn.

BRYK & WIRKKALA: VISIBLE STORAGE

The visible storage displays a collection based on the personal work archives of Rut Bryk and Tapio Wirkkala, owned by the Tapio Wirkkala Rut Bryk Foundation. The visible storage is an exhibition and working space where you can also take a behind-the-scenes look at the work of the museum's photographers and conservators.

KAMU - ESPOO CITY MUSEUM

www.espoonkaupunginmuseo.fi #espooitymuseum
A cultural history museum about Espoo and its inhabitants.

© Tommi Heinonen

14 February 2019–2 February 2020
EYES ON THE HORIZON

Change the way you look at the sea! The activity-oriented exhibition tells about changes in maritime Espoo from the viewpoints of livelihoods, leisure and nature. Seascapes in different seasons and maritime items take the visitor to marine themes from fyke net fishing to birdwatching, from stormy seas to the cliffs on the Kivenlahti shore. You are invited to investigate, play, dive and fish!

PERMANENT EXHIBITION
A THOUSAND STORIES ABOUT ESPOO

The exhibition tells stories about Espoo in five eras and five locations: Stone Age seal hunters in Bosmalm, medieval farmers in Mankby, the gentry and common people in Alberga, factory workers in Kauklahti and city life in the suburbs. The exhibition also explains how Espoo was born, who the people living there are and how Espoo became the city it is today.

10 September–3 November
POP-UP EXHIBITION

A pop-up exhibition in the KAMU lobby, showing what young people visiting youth centres in Espoo think about the sea. Free admission.

FINNISH TOY MUSEUM HEVOSENKENKÄ

lelumuseohevoskenka.fi #finnishtoymuseum
The Finnish Toy Museum Hevoskenkä is a family-friendly museum where playing is absolutely allowed! The Toy Museum features toys and games from the 1800s to modern days. The museum has many opportunities for play, such as the ever-popular slide.

PERMANENT EXHIBITION
I SPY... A WHOLE LOAD OF TOYS!

This permanent exhibition gives you a glimpse of children's rooms in past decades, encouraging you to ponder the meaning of play and how it has changed over the years, as well as reminisce about your own childhood and favourite toys.

15 October 2019–30 August 2020
CHILDREN OF THE EIGHTIES

The Toy Museum's pop-up exhibition Children of the Eighties is dedicated to the wonderfully terrible 1980s. Take an adventure in the fascinating world of pastel-coloured ponies, crimped hair and cassette tapes!

© Pekka Elomaa

UNTIL 7 MARCH 2021
VEHICLE PLAY

The Finnish Toy Museum's new special exhibition looks at travel, means of transport and road safety from children's viewpoint. Climb into a variety of vehicles in this activity-oriented exhibition. Additional programming includes museum theatre, dramatised guided tours, events and workshops.

FINNISH MUSEUM OF HOROLOGY

www.kellomuseo.fi #finnishmuseumofhorology
The Finnish Museum of Horology specialises in timepieces and the measurement of time. Its exhibitions highlight phenomena, people and products in the fields of watchmaking and precious metals.

3 May 2019–5 January 2020
80 YEARS OF JEWELLERY AND SKILL

Handsome jewellery and the skills of goldsmiths tell the story of 80 years of goldsmith education in Finland. The exhibition showcases the entire spectrum of jewellery from traditional goldsmithery to ground-breaking art jewellery.

30 August 2019–5 January 2020
TONY GRANHOLM – MY LIFE IN OBJECTS AND DRAWINGS

An exhibition on the life's work of goldsmith and designer Tony Granholm (1966–2018), based on his donation to the museum. Among other things, he is known for Kalevala Jewelry's popular product series like Moose and Heart of the House.

PERMANENT EXHIBITION
SOME TIME MACHINES!

The permanent exhibition displays clocks and watches with a focus on clocks and watches made or used in Finland. Dive into the currents of time!

OPEN UNTIL 15 September 2019
THE FUTURO HOUSE

WeeGee owns the first mass-produced Futuro house (no. 001) from 1968. Designed by architect Matti Suuronen (1933–2013), the utopian plastic house can be visited with guides during WeeGee's opening hours.

PERMANENT EXHIBITION
FUTURO WORLD 50 YEARS
Studio Suuronen, WeeGee Exhibition Centre

Named after architect Matti Suuronen and located in the lobby of the WeeGee Exhibition Centre, Studio Suuronen houses the Futuro World 50 Years exhibition, which will be displayed until further notice. The exhibition presents Futuro houses and their locations across the world through photographs, captions and map graphics. It is open during WeeGee's opening hours. Free admission.
